WOZQ Program Guide
Fall 1998

91.9 FM Northampton

Monday

6-8 AM: "Food On Your Plate" An Eclectic Earful.
8-10 AM: "Getting Your Groove On" with Deena!!
10 AM-12 PM: "On the Scene" The very best of British music hand picked by a smooth talking Londoner who has more than a slightly unhealthy love for "Ocean Colour Scene."
12-2 PM: "The Universe is a Grun Dragon" Sonic Poopsie spins an inter-galactic mix of curiously melodious music to move you to mindfulness.
2-4 PM: "Sea Salt and Vinegar" This show will make your lips pucker and make you salivate for more. Come into the world of 80s new wave and relive your punky childhood memories with the Smiths, David Bowie, and we'll sprinkle in some Beasties. Besides the old school at it's best, we'll give you some Nina Simone and other awesome music to break up the monotony.
4-6 PM: "Jubilee" with Alison
6-8 PM: "Gorgonzola" Expect to hear a wide variety of awesome sounds on this show. Everything from indie rock to reggae to folk to techno will be heard on various shows—but it all flows together smoothly. I also read poetry and short stories once in a while to keep things interesting.
8-10 PM: "Jet-Set Youth" Simple music to make young girls and boys sigh. Bright lights, a thousand questions, and kisses just for practice in time to the music of the Youth.
10 PM-12 AM: "Somewhere Between Sound and Sense" 'Girl, you make a thug wanna get a legal gig.'
12-2 AM: "Listen Up!" (Hardcore show) All your favorite hardcore hits plus the stuff you'll wish you had heard before.

Tuesday

6-8 AM: "Milk Does a Body Good" with Tanya & Hanna. Dairy filled indie, swing, ska, emo, and an occasional 80s cookie.
8-10 AM: "40 oz. of Show" Alita and Jen have been digitally remastered for another semester of your listening pleasure.
10 AM-12 PM: "Confessions of a Lip Gloss Addict" Mostly pretty indie pop, interspersed with bits of punk-ier stuff, girl-oriented (of course) introspective but also fun, sweet + smart!
12-2 PM: Indie Rock, British Invasion, drum & bass.
2-4 PM: "Songs That Are Good" Listen, as one lonely, overexcited girl tries to impress the pants right off you.
4-6 PM: "P.S. Don't Hug Me" Anopheles mosquitoes come out at dusk. They cause malaria. Stay inside while dj little miss tamar plays lengthy, languid songs for your tea-time dalliances.

6-8 PM: "Kissing Just For Practice" with Alexis: Enjoy the best of indie rock: kandy pop, girl rock, and other eclectic treats from Minneapolis and beyond, all served with a smile.
8-10 PM: WOZQ Top 30 with Terri.
10 PM-12 AM: "More Sad Hits..." An evening of songs to make you sigh. Everything ranging from indie, indie-pop, shoegazing, space-rock and space-aged pop, plus anything in between. Just don't forget your tissues.
12-2 AM: "Midnight Soup" with Suzi.

Wednesday

6-8 AM: "Open My Box" Unsorted music and words.
8-10 AM: "Beige" The Sugarcubes meet the Smiths.
10 AM-12 PM: "I Left My Heart on Ludlow Street" Indie pop, punk rock and ska to inspire dreams of ferry rides, scooter sightings, and late-night milkshake moments...
12-2 PM: "Puffy and Your Mother"
2-4 PM: "Outta Range" A show for those within the 25 mile radius. Not too hard, and not so soft.
4-6 PM: "Two Cute Tushies" It's wicked good music, dude.
6-8 PM: Jenny P.—The smooth music and pretty words you love to hear. Love songs and slow jams for the heartbroken and the crazy-in-love listeners.
8-10 PM: "The Raw Deal" (urban to the fullest)
10 PM-12 AM: "Urban Roots" with Maya and Joanna. "and as lyricists in this time period we experiment with a myriad of new findings/ different from the supposed truths/ the ample evidence we presented it/ it complimented our argument that everything is impermanent." Hiphop, funk, soul, beats, lyrics, roots.
12-2 AM: "Malice on the Mic" Laying down the phattest beats from the urban streets.

Thursday

6-8 AM: "Ill in the Head" with Aislinn. A sporting venture into the dank world of underground (and not-so-underground) punk and its variants.
8-10 AM: Indie programming with Ilana
10 AM-12 PM: "Sunday Brunch" Something for everyone. Everything from rap, ska, punk, and oldies will tinkle your eardrums on this mad fun filled assorted music FEAST!
12-2 PM: "Old Campton" Smashing show, with brilliant performances by all the fit birds and blokes who want to bring you a bit of the U.K.
